

ORDER

The matter regarding transfer of license in cases where such license has been granted after release of land in favour of individual land owners has been deliberated.

It has been now decided that, the permission for transfer of license may be allowed in cases, where the ownership of the applicant(s) is before the notification of land under section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 and land is released for the purposes of grant of license before the issuance of the award. In such cases, whenever, license is granted in favour of original land owners, the transfer of license shall be allowed from the land owners and in favour of only such developers, who had entered into collaboration with the original land owners before the grant of license. No third party transfer of license shall be allowed.
